Richland County

Located in eastern Montana, Richland County is Montana’s 20th most populous with 9,667 residents, according to the 2000 Census.

Sidney, the county seat, is the state’s 16th largest city with a population of 4,774. It’s home to the MonDak Heritage Center and Art Gallery, known as one of the best small town museums west of the Mississippi. Anglers can enjoy the border waterways of eastern Montana and western North Dakota and the more than 40 fish varieties, including the exotic paddlefish, which can top 150 pounds.

According to the Montana Almanac, by authors Andrea Merrill and Judy Jacobson, the county was established in 1914 and was named to bring settlers to the area. The authors say Sidney was named after the son of a pioneer family, Sidney Walters.

According to the U.S. Bureau of the Census, median income for Richland County households in 1997 was $31,885. The county is 2,103.1 square miles in area; 2,084.2 square miles in land area and 18.9 in inland water area.

County residents experience the four distinct seasons. According to the Western Regional Climate Center, the average daily low in Sidney in January between 1961 and 1990 was 1.8 degrees above zero. The average daily high in July was 86.1 degrees above. The annual precipitation during the same period was 13.67 inches and the growing season was from May 11 to Sept. 15 (last and first frost).

PLEASE NOTE: Because of time and budget constraints, we are only able to update our county fliers periodically. Individual tables are updated on a more frequent basis. You can call us if you'd like the most current information for a particular county. The Annual Averages for County Employment By Industry are updated annually, usually in June. The Top Employers are updated annually. Per Capita Income statewide is usually released late spring. Population data for Montana is released in late December and county data in March. The Annual Average Labor Force information is benchmarked annually and numbers available before March. The other tables contain Census information and will be updated every 10 years. You can also look for more current information on our website listed on the front of this publication.
